

Daniel H. Mathias is the Managing Partner of Cohen & Gresser's London office and a member of the firm's Corporate group. He focuses his practice on complex cross-border private equity and M&A transactions.

Daniel has extensive experience advising private equity firms, owners, family offices, growth equity funds, and other alternative asset managers on their investments and divestments.

Having worked in London, Washington D.C., Los Angeles, and Hong Kong, Daniel has significant international transactional experience and often works with U.S.-based clients on domestic and major cross-border transactions. He has advised investors and businesses across a broad range of industries, including those in the health care, technology, real estate, industrial, aerospace, and consumer sectors.

Prior to joining C&G, Daniel was a Senior Associate in the London office of McDermott Will & Emery LLP. He began his career as a trainee and then as an associate at Latham & Watkins LLP.

Daniel completed his Legal Practice Course with distinction from Oxford Institute of Legal Practice and received his Graduate Diploma in Law from Oxford Brookes University. He earned his Bachelor's Degree in History with Upper Second Class Honors from the University of Bristol. Daniel is fluent in Welsh.
