Guillaume Guérin is a counsel in the firm's Paris office. His practice focuses on advising publicly listed and non-listed companies and their managers, investment funds, and financial institutions on a wide range of regulatory and compliance issues, investigations, and corporate transactions.

Guillaume has significant experience in investigation, control, and sanction proceedings before the French financial markets authority (AMF) and the Banking Authority (ACPR), as well as with matters requiring international cooperation with foreign regulators including the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and with any subsequent judicial proceedings.

He also has extensive experience advising investors, publicly listed companies, and their managers on financial markets transactions and regulations, including public mergers and acquisitions, tender offers, initial public offerings (IPOs), the securities issuances, initial coin offerings (ICOs) as well as on corporate governance and financial communications matters.

Guillaume is regularly recognized by The Legal 500 in its stock market litigation category in France. He has also been recognized by Leaders League in the "Highly Recommended" category for compliance in France.

Prior to joining the firm, Guillaume was a senior associate in DLA Piper's Paris office and an associate at Dentons (formerly Salans). Before that, he spent five years at the AMF in the Investigations department and the Legal Affairs department.

Guillaume holds an LL.M. from the University of Virginia School of Law and a Master of Laws (DJCE-DESS) in business law and taxation from the University Jean Moulin Lyon III.

Guillaume is fluent in French and English.
